Citizens of the United States desiring to obtain passports while in a foreign country must apply to the chief diplomatic representative of the United States in that country, or, in the absence of a diplomatic representative, then to the Consul General, if there be one, or, in the absence of both the officers last named, to a Consul.

Certificates of citizenship or passports issued by State authorities, or by Judicial or Municipal functionaries of the United States, are not recognized by the officers of foreign governments; and by the 23d section of the Act of Congress approved on the 18th of August, 1856, it is made penal for such authorities and functionaries to issue such passports.

To persons wishing to obtain passports for themselves, blank forms of application will be furnished by this Department on request, stating whether the applicant be a native or a naturalized citizen. Forms are not furnished, except as samples, to those who make a business of procuring passports.

Communications should be addressed to the Department of State, indorsed "Passport Division," and each communication should give the Post Office address of the person to whom the answer is to be directed.

Professional titles will not be inserted in passports.
